LED / LASER

OUTSTANDING RESULTS

LED 650 nm

LASER
915 nm

LED and LASER, associated with the microstimulations, help to achieve faster results and to make them more long-lasting.

— LED Skin Rejuvenation

The 650 nm wavelength penetrates in the fibroblasts that are in the connective tissue with consequent production of collagen. This wavelength is able to reach fat cells. It determines the opening of transitory pores on the cell membrane allowing the fat release.

— LASER Body Shaping

The 915 nm wavelength can reach the deeper layers of the tissue and it acts on the cell, penetrating into it and enhancing lipolysis.
